

FREE CREATIVE PROJECTS AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR EVERYONE ON THE DRIVE & ATTLEE TERRACE ESTATES

WELCOME TO the drawing shed's NEWS BULLETIN

Please read on overleaf to find out how you can get involved in FREE creative projects, delivered right on your doorstep!

the drawing shed, co-led by artists Sally Labern and Bobby Lloyd, was established in 2009. Since then we have been engaging people living on The Drive and Attlee Terrace estates in sharing great ideas and creating new projects using writing, performance, drawing, printmaking, music, film, gardening and food. We bring artists, local people and buckets of imagination into our project space LockUpNumber11 to make new things happen, just behind Fanshaw House on The Drive estate!

JOIN OUR STEERING GROUP!

the drawing shed is recruiting locals of all ages, skills and experience to join a Steering Group of friendly local people. Have your say and help us plan and support the projects and activities YOU would like to see happening in your community.

STRANGER : NEIGHBOUR

Creative Writing workshops for all ages are held on the second Tuesday of the month, 6-8pm in LockUpNumber11.

Led by artists Sally Labern and Bobby Lloyd, we all write from our own life experiences and imagination. All you bring is enthusiasm!
SPECIAL EVENT: Wednesday 23 November - a poetry Workshop in collaboration with poet & musician Simon Pomery, 6:30-8:30pm, The Parasol Unit, 14 Wharf Road, N1 7RW, where we get to hang out in the gallery after everyone else has gone home!

Tuesday 13 December - join our Winter writing workshop, 6.00-8:00pm in LockUpNumber11 with samosa, mince pies...!

LIVE ON THE DRIVE

Teenage girls aged 15-19yrs are already devising brilliant solo and group performances informed by their own ideas and experiences. Supported by artist Katy Baird you'll visit professional Live Art shows and festivals, perform to your peers and if & when you are ready, to the public!

Girls - Live on the Drive needs you! We are actively recruiting!

I learnt to think about the 'how' and the 'why' and not just the 'what'.

I loved it; it was a really different environment.

It was strange in a good way." "I have an interest in performance art now and feel more confident about performing in front of other girls.

Feedback from participants, November 2016

SUNKEN GARDEN COMMUNITY ORCHARD

Trust for London have funded community gardener Lisa Eller for two years to join you in garden design & regular planting workshops, launching in December this year with bee house making!

Held in the 'sunken garden' area in front of Attlee Terrace estate on Prospect Hill, gardeners of all ages are invited to develop their gardening skills, plant flowers, trees and herbs from all over the world, to create a warm & welcoming garden for all to enjoy - with local children helping us record & reduce local air pollution levels.

TOP BOY BAKERS

Started by boys living on the estates, our fabulous baking & mentoring project, now for boys aged 12-16, will be supported by adult men who will train as mentors & encourage boys from the estates to develop their baking skills, learn to sell what they produce and share their culinary creations with families, friends, neighbours & the wider community. The project will launch in January 2017 with baking workshops led by expert East London bakers at Today Bread bakery and café on Hoe Street. Sign up now!!! Men and Boys - this project is for you!

We will also be holding regular coffee mornings in the cozy surroundings of LockUpNumber11. Councillor Saima Mahmud will sometimes join us here and on regular walkabouts.

Watch this space for further details.
